

AMARET SOLD NEW YORKER

Mr. Hurkamp Disposes of the Show Ring Favorite at a Good Price.

SHOOTING IN CAROLINE CO.

An Attack With an Axe Met With the Discharge of a Shotgun—Rabbits in Stafford.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
RICHMOND, VA., Dec. 16.— Mr. St. George R. Fitzhugh, commissioner, sold at public auction here a farm, near Markham, in Fauquier county, containing 220 acres, belonging to the estate of the late Mrs. Withers Waller, of Stafford county, for $11,400. Mr. James B.
Yates, of Fauquier county, was the purchaser. The property was sold for division among their heirs.

A report received here from Caroline county states that a son of Mr. Robert Thomas and M. Julian Brice, both of that county, became involved in a difficulty, and that Thomas approached Brice with an axe, when Brice fired his gun, and Thomas was badly shot about the head and face.

AMARET SOLD.
Mr. Charles H. Hurkamp, of Boswell stock farm, has sold his celebrated prize winning jumper and hunter, named to Mr. James A. Garland, of New York, at a good figure. This horse is well known to many people in this State, in New York, Atlantic City and Massachusetts, where he has frequently been exhibited at the horse shows and was remarkably successful, and having made some wonderful performances over the jumps.

Mr. Hurkamp has recently purchased a splendid thoroughbred hunter from one of the best stock farms in Kentucky and he is now developing him for show ring performances.

MISS LELLA COLLAWN, of Caroline county, while on the streets at Bowling Green yesterday, lost a handsome gold chain and a valuable old gold watch, which has been in the family for years. A reward has been offered for the recovery of the articles.

BIG RABBITS.
Mr. Raymond Davis, of Stafford county, caught in a trap, a rabbit which weighed 7 1/2 pounds, one of the largest ever seen in this section.

Only 48 negroes have qualified themselves for the voting privilege at the next election here, by paying their capitation tax, the time for which having now expired.

SPECIAL GRAND JURY.

Number of Indictments Expected to be Brought in.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WALTON SPRINGS, VA., Dec. 16.—The Board of Supervisors met Monday and appointed L. C. Alphin, M. O'Farrell and C. W. Richardson commissioners to prepare specifications and advertise for bids on the roads and approaches to the two new bridges across Jackson River and Hock Creek. The new road, through Fort Lewis farm, was accepted by the board and declared open to the public, and the old road ordered closed. Accounts were allowed to the amount of $317.33. This was the last meeting of the present Board of Supervisors, which was composed of two Republicans and one Democrat, but the new board will have in it three Democrats and one Republican.

A special grand jury called this week, and in session all day Tuesday, but owing to the large number of witnesses summoned to testify in regard to the sale of a drink called "senok," by Mr. J.
R. Webb, which is claimed to be intoxicating, the jury brought in only one indictment by Tuesday evening, which was against a man named Saunders, of Hot Springs, for assault and battery. It is certain, however, that a large number of indictments will be brought in before the final adjourn, and this term of court promises to be a very interesting one.

While playing with a pistol, Wade Robertson, aged about fifteen years, a Clarence R. Wright in the Gap. Both boys are colored and reside in the Gap, west of Warm Springs.

Mr. Emmett Harper, who has been engaged with McClintock and Company at this place, for several years, at Lexington, a position with J. W. Moore, at Lexington.

COURT MOTHER AND WED DAUGHTER

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTOL, VA., Dec. 16.—It has just come to light that the marriage of Ollie Tyree to Frank S. Graham, a Vermonter, at the home of Mayberry, in West Bristol, a few days ago, was more romantic than at first appeared. It was stated at the time that Miss Tyree had inserted an advertisement in a matrimonial paper, thus bringing about a correspondence with Mr. Graham, that resulted in their marriage. The poetic quotations and the sweet

GOOD LUCK

MAKES BREAD
THAT FATTENS

BAKING POWDER

story of true love were penned by Mrs.
Nancy Ellen Tyree, mother of the girl who became the bride of Mr. Graham. The mother had inserted the advertisement in the matrimonial paper, and was herself advertising for a husband. She and Mr.
Graham had corresponded for some time and had become engaged to be married.
Mr. Graham, fully intending to be true to his vows, came to Bristol to elope with Tyree. When the two met at the home of Mrs. Tyree, in West Bristol, Mr.
Graham may have been pleased with the widow, but he liked her pretty daughter, aged seventeen, more. With Yankee shrewdness, he confessed disappointment in the appearance of the mother, and at once made love to her daughter. The young girl had not once thought of marriage, but when her mother learned this she was not to be gainsaid. The father, and that thus two years of persistent courting was to be lost, she insisted that her daughter should wed Mr. Graham.
The girl had a hearty cry over it; the matter had dawned upon her at a moment when she was least prepared to expect it. She was reluctant to make up her mind, but after three days had passed Mr. Graham and the girl were married, a veteran minister, A. Hobson, having performed the ceremony.
The couple are now residing at the home of the bride's mother, in West Bristol.

A NEAT CAPTURE.

Assailants of Young Caroline Physician Captured.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
COMON, VA., Dec. 16.—Constable J.
B. King, of Shiloh, this county, and his deputy, passed here late yesterday evening, having in custody the two negro men charged with attempting to murder a young physician in Port Royal the previous night. The young negro men, it is said, waited on the outside of a store in Port Royal and knocked the physician into unconsciousness just as he passed out of the store, but failing to kill him.
The would-be murderers crossed the Rappahannock River to this county. Yesterday morning Officer King hurried across the county to the Potomac River, and in the afternoon, boarded a Washington-bound steamer at Stiff's wharf and rounded down on the fleeing negroes, who were tucked away in the tramp of the steamer. In the long tramp from Stiff's wharf, on the Potomac, to Port Conway, on the Rappahannock, the trouble King, his deputy and the two subtle criminals, stopped at this place, just before nightfall, and partook of a lunch.
There is very strong feeling against the negroes charged with the crime, but there is no fear, as yet, of anything like mob law.

Rev. J. R. Thomas on Sunday offered his resignation as pastor of Potomac Baptist Church, near here, where he has served the church three years. The resignation is to take effect January 1st, and it is understood that the resignation will be accepted.

SHOCKING MURDER.

Hacked to Death by His Wife and Destroyer of His Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WYTHEVILLE VA., Dec. 16.—The people of the county are filled with horror at the developments in the murder of Robert Burchett, who was found dead yesterday morning at Max Meadows, Va. To-night the dead man's wife and the Wythe county jail awaiting an indictment by grand jury, both having been sent on to preliminary hearings.
The examination in McGlammery's case was held secretly this afternoon before Magistrate J. Gratton Crockett at Max Meadows, but it transpired that the woman, who is believed to be the wife of the man who murdered Burchett, on one occasion told McGlammery in his home, and that they had quarreled over the matter.
It is also stated that McGlammery was seen at the house the night of the murder. It is therefore presumed that the chattel found in McGlammery's home, together again, and upon his appearance, the guilty pair decided to remove the obstacle in their way, and he with axe, and she with a hatchet, they cut the head of the unfortunate man to pieces. They then tied his head up in an old coat and dragged him some distance from the house.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE.

Struck by Train at Full Speed and Not Seriously Hurt.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
ORANGE, VA., Dec. 16.—About 2 o'clock this afternoon, Mr. Henry W. Stockton attempted to cross the railway at Main Street, crossing in front of fast passenger train, No. 35, in his buggy. His horse had crossed the track, but the engine struck the buggy, knocking Mr. Stockton out, who landed between the pilot and the engine, near the cylinder, had the presence of mind to get on until the train stopped at the station.
His jaw bone was fractured, a deep cut made in his forehead, and another in his cheek. His injuries are not considered dangerous. The buggy was smashed into splinters, a large piece striking the window of Mr. Levy's store, on the corner, and shattering the large plate glass.
His escape from instant death is regarded as almost a miracle.

Opening Coal Fields.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) CRAB ORCHARD, VA., Dec. 16.—The Black Mountain Coal and Coke Company is making rapid progress in the development of the large coal field in the large coke oven plant on Gin's Creek.
In the pocket fifteen miles west of here, near Adamant postoffice.
The people of the pocket are much pleased over the prospects of a large and speedy development of the coal field.
The Mining Branch Railroad is located and is said to be let to contract, and grading is soon to be commenced. The work is being pushed with all possible speed on the new line of the Blueville and Newmarket Railroad from Pennington Gap up through the mountain gap up North Fork Creek to the coal fields of the pocket and Crab Orchard.

Two Years at Sea.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
MALVERN HILL, VA., Dec. 16.—Captain A. S. BURG, VA., Dec. 16.—Captain News for the season, have returned to Shiloh, the home of Mrs. Culver's mother, and Robert Carter, Captain O'Leary will soon leave for two years at sea.
Mrs. Percy Lamb, of Petersburg, is spending some time at Shiloh.
An oyster supper will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William W. Culver, on Monday night, in aid of the Granville Circle of the King's Daughters.
Mr. L. Tremper, who was injured some weeks ago from a horse falling upon him, has about recovered.

Barn Burner Sentenced.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WILKESBORO, VA., Dec. 16.—George Haley, colored, was given ten years in the penitentiary yesterday in the County Court for burning the barn of a housewife in this county, on College landing road.
Haley is about eighteen years old and is supposed to have committed several other crimes.

Married Fourteen Hundred.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTOL, VA., Dec. 16.—The Hurons, the noted keeper of the border mecca for eloping young couples from Virginia, passed the fourteen hundred mark this week when he married four couples in one day. The parson is viewing at the age of seventy-one, and now holds the record of having married more than 2,000 couples.

"PE-RU-NA RESTORES HEALTH AND VIGOR."

Writes Mrs. Dr. Edwards, of Iowa.

Mrs. Doctor Harriet Edwards.

Most of the ailments peculiar to the Female Sex Are Due to Catarrh of the Pelvic Organs.
Mrs. Harriet B. Edwards, No. 1015 Brady Street, Davenport, Ia., writes concerning Peruna:
"Every physician knows that while the proper remedy will restore health the wrong medicine will act as a poison.
Any physician knows that if he does not administer the proper medicine for a certain case it acts as a poison to the system, and it is therefore very important that one should have the right medicine.
"I have found that Peruna is a wonderful medicine to use in diseases peculiar to women. It quickly and permanently restores health and vigor and acts as a tonic to a worn out system. I have so far never observed a case which was not greatly aided by its use."—Rev. Harriet B. Edwards.
Peruna has cured thousands of cases of female weakness. As a rule, however, before Peruna is restored to, several other remedies have been tried in vain. A great many of the patients have taken local treatment, submitted themselves to surgical operations, and taken all sorts of doctor's stuff, without any result.
The reason of so many failures is the fact that diseases peculiar to the female sex are not commonly recognized as being caused by catarrh. These organs are lined by mucous membranes. Any mucous membrane is subject to catarrh.
Catarrh of one organ is exactly the same as catarrh of any other organ. What will cure catarrh of the head will also cure catarrh of the pelvic organs. Peruna cures these cases simply because it cures the catarrh.
Most of the women afflicted with pelvic diseases have no idea that their trouble is due to catarrh. The majority of the people think that catarrh is a disease confined to the head alone.
This is not true. Catarrh is liable to attack any organ of the body; throat, bronchial tubes, lungs, stomach, kidneys and especially the pelvic organs.

Ask Your Druggist for a free Peruna Almanac for 1904.

which have been paid and returned delinquent.
It is also reported that the board may make some public reply to the charge recently published by Mr. Powell that the board had not carried out the law as governing some of their actions. Should they do this, a spicy communication is looked for.
In an interview with Commonwealth's Attorney W. A. Watson to-day, he stated that he had thus far come to no decision as to whether or not other indictments would be drawn. Another grand jury asked for. He is probably awaiting the result of the collection of tickets now being made by the sheriff.
Mr. Watson had no hesitancy in expressing a great disappointment at the failure of the recent grand jury to find a true bill from the evidence before it.
LIST OF QUESTIONS.
He expressed much surprise at the fact that the accused sent into the grand jury, through its foreman, Mr. Benjamin Irby, a list of questions to be asked certain witnesses. These questions were not seen by any of the jurors except the foreman, and the question of whether or not they could be asked was submitted to the court for its decision. The court decided they could not be.
Nothing has occurred in this county for years that has occasioned as much comment as the entire affair. Many of the friends of Mr. Powell are still claiming his innocence, and are intentionally wrongdoing. This is evidenced by the fact that some of the leading citizens of the county, among them several directors of the bank, of which he is president, appear as his bondsmen, as shown recently in this correspondence.
There are others who have been among his supporters in the past, even in the recent election with the cloud of wrong doing hanging over him, who are now among those censuring him and demanding further action in the matter.

A Bold Robbery.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SUMMIT, VA., Dec. 16.—At sometime between 6 and 7 o'clock Monday evening, while Mr. and Mrs. James Holmes were busy in the cook room, unknown parties entered the dining room and carried off $175 in gold and silver and two gold watches. The robbery was unquestionably committed by the same persons who were in the house the night of the robbery of the Holmes family, and the Holmes family are both well known in the county. The only occupants of their house and this is a terrible loss to them. They live not far from this place.

Qualified Vote Small.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) BRISTOL, VA., Dec. 16.—There were more than four hundred registered voters in Bristol who did not comply with the poll tax requirement of the new Constitution. The result is that this number will be disfranchised in the next general election. It means that the vote of Bristol next spring cannot exceed 500.

DRUNKENNESS CURED.

Positively and permanently without inconvenience or loss of time. "Orinco" is endorsed by clergymen, physicians and a public health officer. It is a tonic, indigestible, odorless and colorless, and can be given in tea, coffee, water or milk without the patient's knowledge. It is sold in boxes for $5. Polk Miller Drug Co., 50 E. Main St., Baltimore, Md., and first and Broad Sts., Richmond.

DOCTORS VS. DRUGGISTS

Advocate the Revocation of the License of Any Druggist Who Prescribes for a Patient.

AFTER THE SOCIAL CLUBS

Searched the Cemeteries of Portsmouth for the Grave of His Father Without Success.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., Dec. 16.—The physicians who are here in attendance upon the eighth annual meeting of the Seaboard Medical Association were entertained lavishly to-day at scientific experiments, including the treatment of cancer by X-ray and by theatre parties and a trip to the Jamestown Exposition site.

Mr. McMullan, of Portsmouth, read a paper on the subject of "Doctors vs.
Druggists," and in it the doctor advocated the passage of a law requiring the revocation of the license of any druggist who shall prescribe for a patient.
Dr. Wells, of Portland, Oregon, in the discussion which followed Dr. McMullan's paper, advocated the return of prescriptions after they had been filled.
Dr. Dickinson and Grundy participated in the debate, and the latter spoke in favor of restricting the sale of morphine, opium and cocaine to physicians' prescriptions only.

Dr. Payne, of Norfolk, advocated the adoption of a resolution authorizing the committee, consisting of Dr. Payne, McMurran and Jones were appointed to draft this resolution, copies of which are to be furnished the press.

SOCIAL CLUBS.

Commonwealth's Attorney J. G. Tilton has begun his attack on alleged illegal social clubs. "The Union" is the first to be hauled up. A writ was to-day issued, at the instance of Mr. Tilton, ar-raigning the club's management for interfering with the club's members and liquor to persons not members and for maintaining a disorderly house for men and women.

The Norfolk Silk Mills refuse to arbitrate their differences with their striking employees. The employees made their proposition through a committee, which was told that the company, while willing to take back its employees at the rate announced, cannot pay more, and therefore cannot arbitrate.

SEARCHED FOR FATHER'S GRAVE.

Mr. John A. Covert, manager of the Board of Public Accounts of Columbus, O., accompanied by his wife and daughter, arrived in Portsmouth this morning for the purpose of locating, if possible, the burial place of his father, Mr. John Covert, who died here during the yellow fever epidemic of 1853. He first applied to the office of Captain C. T. Phillips, clerk of the Hustings Court, for information, but there being no record of deaths to-day by the jury, sitting in his office, no information was obtained.
Mr. Covert, upon learning where the two caskets were located, searched both over for the grave of his father, but the search resulted unsuccessfully.

Mr. and Mrs. Covert and daughter will leave to-morrow for Richmond.

THE CULLEN TRIAL.

Found Not Guilty and Bailed for His Further Appearance.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
HARRISONBURG, VA., Dec. 16.—Captain Orlan Clyde Cullen was found not guilty to-day by the jury, sitting in his trial on a second indictment in the United States District Court.
The decision of the jury was very much in accord with public sentiment. Captain Cullen was released on $1,000 bail for his appearance at the Lynchburg term of the court, when the remaining indictments against him will be tried. For several minutes after Cullen had been released, the crowd in the court-room surged about him and congratulated him on his acquittal.

Cullen was arrested December 12th, by Deputy Marshal Rhodes, disguised as a salesman, and charged with fraud. He was charged with intent to defraud. He was tried before the United States Commissioner at Winchester, and sent on to the grand jury which met in Lynchburg last September. Two indictments were found against him then and three by the grand jury at this term of the court.
The evidence in the case showed that Cullen ordered goods through the mails and did not pay for them. His business did not succeed and he could not pay for the goods. The instructions of the jury were that if there was no intent to pay the goods, the prisoner was guilty.
In the instruction of the jury this was not shown. Further evidence showed that Cullen had not been fully discharged from St. Elizabeth's Institute, Hospital at Washington, and the instructions of the court stated that the government must prove that the prisoner was not insane which was not done.

BUSTER TRICE FLED.

But His Trial for Assaulting Town Sergeant Went on.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
LOUISA, VA., Dec. 16.—"Buster" Trice was fined fifty dollars and put under bond in the sum of two hundred dollars to keep the peace for twelve months in the Mayor's Court this morning, for resisting and assaulting Sergeant J. F. Bickars, who attempted to arrest him Monday night for disorderly conduct on the street, and in several places.
Trice was recognized to appear for trial to-day at 10 o'clock but failed to do so, having left town yesterday, for parts unknown, but the trial was gone into with the above results.

PATRIARCH DEAD.

Leaves Seventeen Children and Many Descendants.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) LURAY, VA., Dec. 16.—Mr. Isaac Cullars, one of the oldest citizens of Page county, and in many respects the most remarkable in the county, died at his home near Luray, Va., at 10 o'clock Monday night, aged eighty-one years. Mr.
Cullars was the father of seventeen children, besides several grand-children.
He was more than one hundred and eight years old when he died. He was a brave soldier and a great-grandfather.
He was for many years Commissioner of the Revenue for Springfield District.

Paying of Poll Tax.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
STAUNTON, VA., December 16.—Yesterday was the last day in which the voters of Staunton and Augusta had to pay the poll tax in order to vote in the next election. The result is that this number will be disfranchised in the next general election. It means that the vote of Staunton next spring cannot exceed 500.

The Delineator For JANUARY

MRS. OSBORN

the renowned fashion authority, has become a regular contributor to The Delineator. Three pages of the January number (and of future issues) will be devoted to her letter with accompanying illustrations. This is our latest achievement in the interest of those who subscribe to The Delineator primarily for its fashion information. Hereafter the magazine will contain not only the latest ideas covering an immense range of styles of our own corps of designers, artists and writers, with illustrations by the most skilful fashion artists, but it will also present the views of the present and the prophecies for the future of this justly famous modiste.

THE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

A Remarkable Series on PERSONAL BEAUTY HOW TO ATTAIN AND PRESERVE IT

By Dr. Grace Peckham Murray. Finely illustrated. This series of twelve monthly articles will be a most practical help to The Delineator reader.

PARSIFAL: How the Opera was Written, by W. J. Henderson

Kobbe. Illustrated from the only photographs of the opera ever taken, and now published for the first time. A unique treat for the music lover. Just as interesting and in another vein is SCHUMANN-HEINK AT HOME.

THE EVOLUTION OF A CLUB WOMAN—Serial

THE GOLDEN POPPY—A story by Jack London A DEPARTMENT FOR CHILDREN HOME MAKING WAITING AND SERVING AT TABLE

For practical fashion information of value; for the care of your person, the beautifying of your home, the welfare of children; for every kind of needlework, and for good literature attractively illustrated, "Just Get The Delineator."

Of your newsdealer, or any Butterick agent, or the publishers, at 15 Cents a copy. $1 for an entire year. THE BUTTERICK PUBLISHING CO., 7-17 W. 13th Street, New York

FREE—Anyone addressing the publishers will be mailed free Mrs. Osborn's letter with illustrations.

We are Richmond Agents for the Delineator and all Butterick Publication and Patterns.

Fourqurean, Temple & Co.

Xmas Jewelry!

The choicest Christmas gift is unquestionably something in Diamonds, in appropriate settings, or one of the many other attractive articles in jewelry to be seen in our holiday display.

The Diamonds and other gems, we, of course, guarantee—and the many pretty designs in gold are even ahead of our usual standard.

J. J. Allen & Co.,
14th and Main Sts.

Special Sale OF Opera Glasses at about ONE HALF of their usual value, to make room for new inportation and preceding to removal to our new quarters. This is an exceptional Opera Glass opportunity for Xmas presents or personal use.

...The...
S. Galeski Optical
Company.

Manufacturing Opticians and Expert Adjusters of Spectacles, Eyeglasses, Artificial Eyes, Etc.

NOW IS THE TIME To Order Your Books

For the New Year.
Do not wait until you want to open them. Order now and have them ready for use.

Write or phone (1903).
SIMONS BLANK BOOK CO., Designers and Manufacturers of

ELANK BOOKS.

CUT FLOWERS.
Roses, Carnations, Violets, Mums, Lily of the Valley, in large quantity, at MANN & BROWN, No. 5 West Broad Street.

CIGARS

for holiday trade. All the popular brands, put up in boxes of 25 cigars, The kind that please O. H. S. as well as the one who smokes. Suitable presents for your gentlemen friends! 11 to 25 per box.

FOLK MILLER DRUG COMPANY, 24 E. Main Street.